Behavioral Expectations

Summer@Saklan expects everyone to be positive, contributing members of our community at all times. We are committed to the principles of respect for self and others, and responsibility for our actions and the care of our community. Within the framework of a fun and engaging program, we expect all campers to follow these rules of behavior:

At all times...

1. Campers are expected to conduct themselves with tolerance and respect for each other regardless of an individual's race, religion, culture, gender, sexual orientation, thoughts, hopes or dreams.
2. Campers will respect all Saklan property and will not break, damage or deface the buildings and grounds, materials, books, laptops, printers and furnishings.
3. Campers will respect the personal property, belongings and materials of campers and instructors.
4. Campers will respect the rights of fellow campers without fighting, teasing or name-calling.
5. Campers will use language that is free from vulgarity and profanity.
6. Campers will be honest in their words and deeds.
7. Campers will act in a way that does not disrupt the work of the instructor or the participation of other campers.
8. Campers will walk, not run, in and around classrooms and keep their voices quiet as not to disturb other campers and instructors.
9. Campers will clean up after themselves, especially after meal times and swimming.
10. Campers will use the playground equipment properly and safely, as well as sharing with other campers.
11. Grabbing, wrestling, tackling and rough-housing are not allowed during camp.
12. Campers will not use sticks, stones, or other materials that may cause harm or injury.

Philosophy

At Summer@Saklan, we expect our campers to conduct themselves with respect for themselves and each other, the school, and greater community and environment at all times, both on campus and off. We empower students to become more independent and confident in their communication skills and understanding of the world around them. Our goal for summer learning is to give campers unique and fun opportunities to explore through guided inquiry, first-person interaction with other cultures and languages, and exciting field experiences in our amazing home, the Bay Area. It is imperative that all students commit themselves to meet our standard of behavior while they are in attendance in order to best support the learning environment for students of every background and ability. We reserve the right to take disciplinary action such as suspensions or expulsion in extreme cases.
