

Dear Leadership Challenge Participants,

I am excited to see you next week and to guide you through exercises and experiences to help you discover who you are as a leader.

There are a few details I wanted to call your attention to before camp begins.

On the first day of camp, Monday, July 7, we will be meeting with a guest instructor who will lead us through the low ropes course in the OES woods. Please dress for the weather in clothes you would be comfortable climbing and bending in. Also, consider bringing a water bottle with you to camp.

On Tuesday, July 8 we will be traveling to Portland City Hall to meet with Commissioner Dan Saltzman and with representatives of the Multnomah Youth Commission. Please plan to dress respectfully and professionally. There is no need for a suit and tie, but please think of how best to represent yourself to these city officials. If desired, you may change out of these clothes when we return to campus for the afternoon.

On Friday, July 11 we will be traveling to the Portland Police Bureau's Sunshine Division to participate in a morning of service learning. Please plan to dress comfortably and be ready to work in a warehouse-type environment. Consider your footwear choice; no flip-flops please.

I look forward to many additional experiences in our week together. See you Monday!

Sincerely,
Kristen Haferbecker
Leadership Challenge Instructor
