APPLICANT NAME: _____

In accordance with the HIPAA (Health Information Portability and Accountability Act), this notice describes how health information about you may be used and disclosed. Please review it carefully. The privacy of your health information is important to us.

We are required by applicable federal and state law to maintain the privacy of your health information. We are also required to give you this notice about our privacy practices, our legal duties, and your rights concerning your health information. We must follow the privacy practices that are described in this notice while it is in effect. This notice took effect April 14, 2003 and remains in effect until we replace it. We reserve the right to change our privacy practices and the terms of this notice at any time; provided such changes are permitted by applicable law. We reserve the right to make the changes in our privacy practice and the new terms of this notice effective for all health information that we maintain, including health information we created or received before we made these changes. Before we make a significant change in our privacy practices, we will change this notice and make the new notice available to you.

USES AND DISCLOSURES OF HEALTH INFORMATION

We use and disclose health information about you for treatment, payment, and healthcare operations. For example:

Treatment: We may use or disclose your health information to a physician or other healthcare professional or provider who is or may be providing treatment to you.

Payment: We may use and disclose your health information to obtain payment or assist a medical facility in obtaining payment for services we provided or assisted in providing for you.

Healthcare operations: We may use and disclose your health information in connection with our healthcare operations. Healthcare operations include quality assessment and improvement activities, reviewing the competence or qualifications of healthcare professionals, evaluating practitioner and provider performance, conducting training programs, accreditation, certification, licensing or credentialing activities.

Your authorization: In addition to our use of your health information for treatment, payment or healthcare operations, you may give us written authorization to use your health information or disclose it to anyone for any purpose. If you give us an authorization, you may revoke it in writing at any time. Your revocation will not affect any use or disclosures permitted by your authorization while it was in effect. Unless you give us a written authorization, we cannot use or disclose your health information for any reason except those described in this notice.

To your family and friends: We may disclose your health information to a family member, friend or other person to the extent necessary to help with your healthcare or with payment for your healthcare. This person is the one you have designated on your application to be your emergency contact person.

Others involved in your healthcare: We may use or disclose health information to notify, (including identifying or locating) a family member, your personal representative, or another person responsible for your care, of your location, your general condition, or death. If you are present, then prior to use or disclosure of your health information, we will provide you with an opportunity to object to such uses or (continued on pg 3) disclosures (if not a minor). In the event of your incapacity or emergency circumstances, we will disclose health information based on a determination using our professional judgment disclosing only health information that is directly relevant to the person's involvement in your healthcare. We will also use our professional judgment and our experience with common practice to make reasonable inferences of your best interest in allowing a person to pick up filled prescriptions, medical supplies, x-rays, or other similar forms of health information.

Research: We may disclose your protected health information to researchers when an institutional review board or privacy board has reviewed the research proposal and established protocols to ensure the privacy of the information, and approved the research. In addition, we may disclose your protected health information as part of a limited data set for purposes of research, public health or healthcare operations.

Marketing health-related services: We will not use your health information for marketing communications without your authorization.

Required by law: We may use or disclose your health information when we are required to do so by law.

Abuse or neglect: We may disclose your health information to appropriate authorities if we reasonably believe that you are a possible victim of abuse, neglect, or domestic violence or the possible victim of other crimes. We may disclose your health information to the extent necessary to avert a serious threat to your health or safety or the health or safety of others.

National security: We may disclose to authorized federal officials health information required for lawful intelligence, counterintelligence and other national security activities.

Camp practices: We may use e-mails, voicemail messages, faxes or letters, to obtain your health information pertinent to care that we will provide to you.

Electronic notice: If you receive this notice by electronic mail (e-mail), you are entitled to receive this notice in written form. Renewal will be annually.
