

MiVoden Challenge Camp Consent and Release

We the undersigned parents and/or guardians of _____ (child), a minor, in consideration for his/her being allowed to participate, do hereby acknowledge and agree that: _____ (child) has our permission to participate in the Challenge Camp sponsored by Camp MiVoden and which will include participation in the following activities

- Rock Climbing at Q'emiln Park in Post Falls, Idaho

These activities have inherent risks and may result in serious injury or death. The child is responsible for taking the time to learn safe techniques and the proper use and limitations of each piece of equipment used as taught by our staff. These activities are not required and the child may refuse to engage in any part of the activity, if they feel uncomfortable with it.

We understand that while MiVoden staff are trained, qualified and will follow the usual precautions as this is a potentially dangerous sport. We, therefore, knowingly accept this risk and agree to release Camp MiVoden, its employees and agents, and the Upper Columbia Conference from responsibility for any injuries which _____ (child) may suffer as a result of participation in rock climbing at said organization's facilities.
