

Packing List - Camp Araminta

Please be sure to label all items (that you wish returned) with your camper's name!

Clothing:

- Pajamas or night clothes - tops required for both genders
- Swim suits (at least two are recommended)
 - Boys: modest board shorts
 - Girls: modest one-piece or tankini completely covering stomach
 - Swim shirt/rash guard strongly encouraged
- 5 days' supply of:
 - Shorts (inseams at least 3.5")
 - T-shirts (Shirt straps should be two adult fingers in width and no tummies shown)
 - Undergarments
- Additionally: One set of old, messy clothes that can be thrown away after a (very!) messy day
- Long pants if desired (Beta and Gamma go to ropes course)
- Tennis shoes and socks - closed-toed shoes will be worn predominantly around camp
- Water shoes
- Sweatshirt or jacket - cabins and meeting rooms are air-conditioned
- Raincoat or poncho

Toiletries, etc (note: travel-sized versions work well):

- Soap or body wash
- Shampoo/conditioner
- Deodorant
- Toothbrush/toothpaste
- Sunscreen
- Bug spray
- Comb or brush

Linens:

- Sleeping bag or sheets (XL twin), pillow
- Bath towel and beach towel
- Washcloth

Other supplies:

- Bible - any version
- Water bottle (preferably with handle or strap for easy carrying all over camp!)
- Flashlight
- Plastic bag(s) for dirty laundry and/or wet clothes
- Medications needed (both prescription and over-the-counter must be turned in at check-in and kept with the camp nurse)
- $20-$30 to spend at the Snack Shack (Alpha campers visit once/day; Beta and Gamma campers 2x/day) - also turned in at check-in

Optional items:

- Free time items - playing cards, books, stuffed animal
- Instrument, if you play one
- Inexpensive or disposable camera (camp photos will be made available via the private Araminta Campers Facebook page)
- If your camper wants to write home/relatives:
 - stationery/pens
 - pre-addressed stamped envelopes

Items NOT to pack:
