all about SAINT KATERI TEKAKWITHA

Tekakwitha was born in 1656, in a Mohawk Indian village. When she was only four years old, smallpox hit her village and killed many people including her parents and brother. Tekakwitha survived but was weakened and left with scars which partially blinded her and served as a source of humiliation throughout her childhood.

After her parents' death, Tekakwitha was raised by tribal relatives and became an expert in domestic tribal arts and grew in deep appreciation for nature. As she got older, she encountered some visiting Jesuit missionaries and was drawn to their joy and relationship with Christ. She began to lead a life inspired by their example. Tekakwitha fell in love with Jesus, refused an arranged marriage by her family, and was baptized at age 19 taking the name of Kateri (a Mohawk form of Catherine). She later took a vow of chastity and pledged to marry only Jesus Christ.

Kateri's village did not approve of this decision, leading to great suffering and persecution from her family and neighbors. She fled to the Christian Indian mission of St Francis Xavier in Montreal where she became known as the "Lily of the Mohawks" in recognition of her purity, kindness, prayer, faith, and heroic suffering.

Sadly, just five years after her conversion to Catholicism, Kateri became ill and passed away at age 24, on April 17, 1680. Her last words were, "Jesus, I love you." Moments after dying, her scarred face was miraculously healed and "shone like the sun."

fast facts

- She is the first Native American saint, canonized on October 21, 2012 by Pope Benedict XVI.
- Because of St. Kateri's example of chastity and virtue, she is often called Lily of the Mohawks.
- It's said that Kateri would create crosses out of sticks and place them throughout the forest, often while traveling to the nearby village for Mass. We create these crosses at Camp Tekakwitha while praying for specific intentions. Then, they serve as a reminder to pray for others!
- Images of her are often decorated with a lily and cross along with feathers or turtle as representation of her culture!
- Her final words were "Jesus, I love you" / "Jesos Konoronkwa."
- Kateri is the patron saint of ecology, orphaned children, & Native Americans.
- One of Kateri's 'mottos' was, "Who can tell me what is most pleasing to God that I may do it?"
