Summer Missionary

more than a job...it's a MISSION!

Serving as a summer missionary at Camp Oak Hills is hard work but has many rewards, including: spiritual growth, lasting friendships, leadership experience, and job skills.

Qualifications we look for in a summer missionary:

- Sincere love for Jesus, growing walk with God, and belief in the Bible.
- Love for children and a desire to see them come to know and grow in Jesus.
- In agreement with Camp Oak Hills' philosophy, policies, and guidelines of conduct.
- Hard-working, eager to learn, self-starters, and willing to serve the needs of the campers and staff.
- Committed to raising a financial and prayer support team.

Summer Leadership Staff

Summer Leadership Staff are at least one year out of high school and have prior camp or other ministry experience. A ten-week commitment is required. Guaranteed salary is $2,500 up to $7,000 with support raised.

• Head Counselors

The head counselors provide oversight and support to the cabin counselors. A head counselor must have at least one summer of camp counseling experience. One male and one female head counselor will be hired.

• S.O.S. (SERVING OTHERS SELFLESSLY) Team Leader

The S.O.S. team leader provides direction in daily work duties, leads devotions, and plans recreation activities for the S.O.S. team. This team is composed of high school students who work behind the scenes to provide for the physical needs of the campers and staff.

• Activities Director

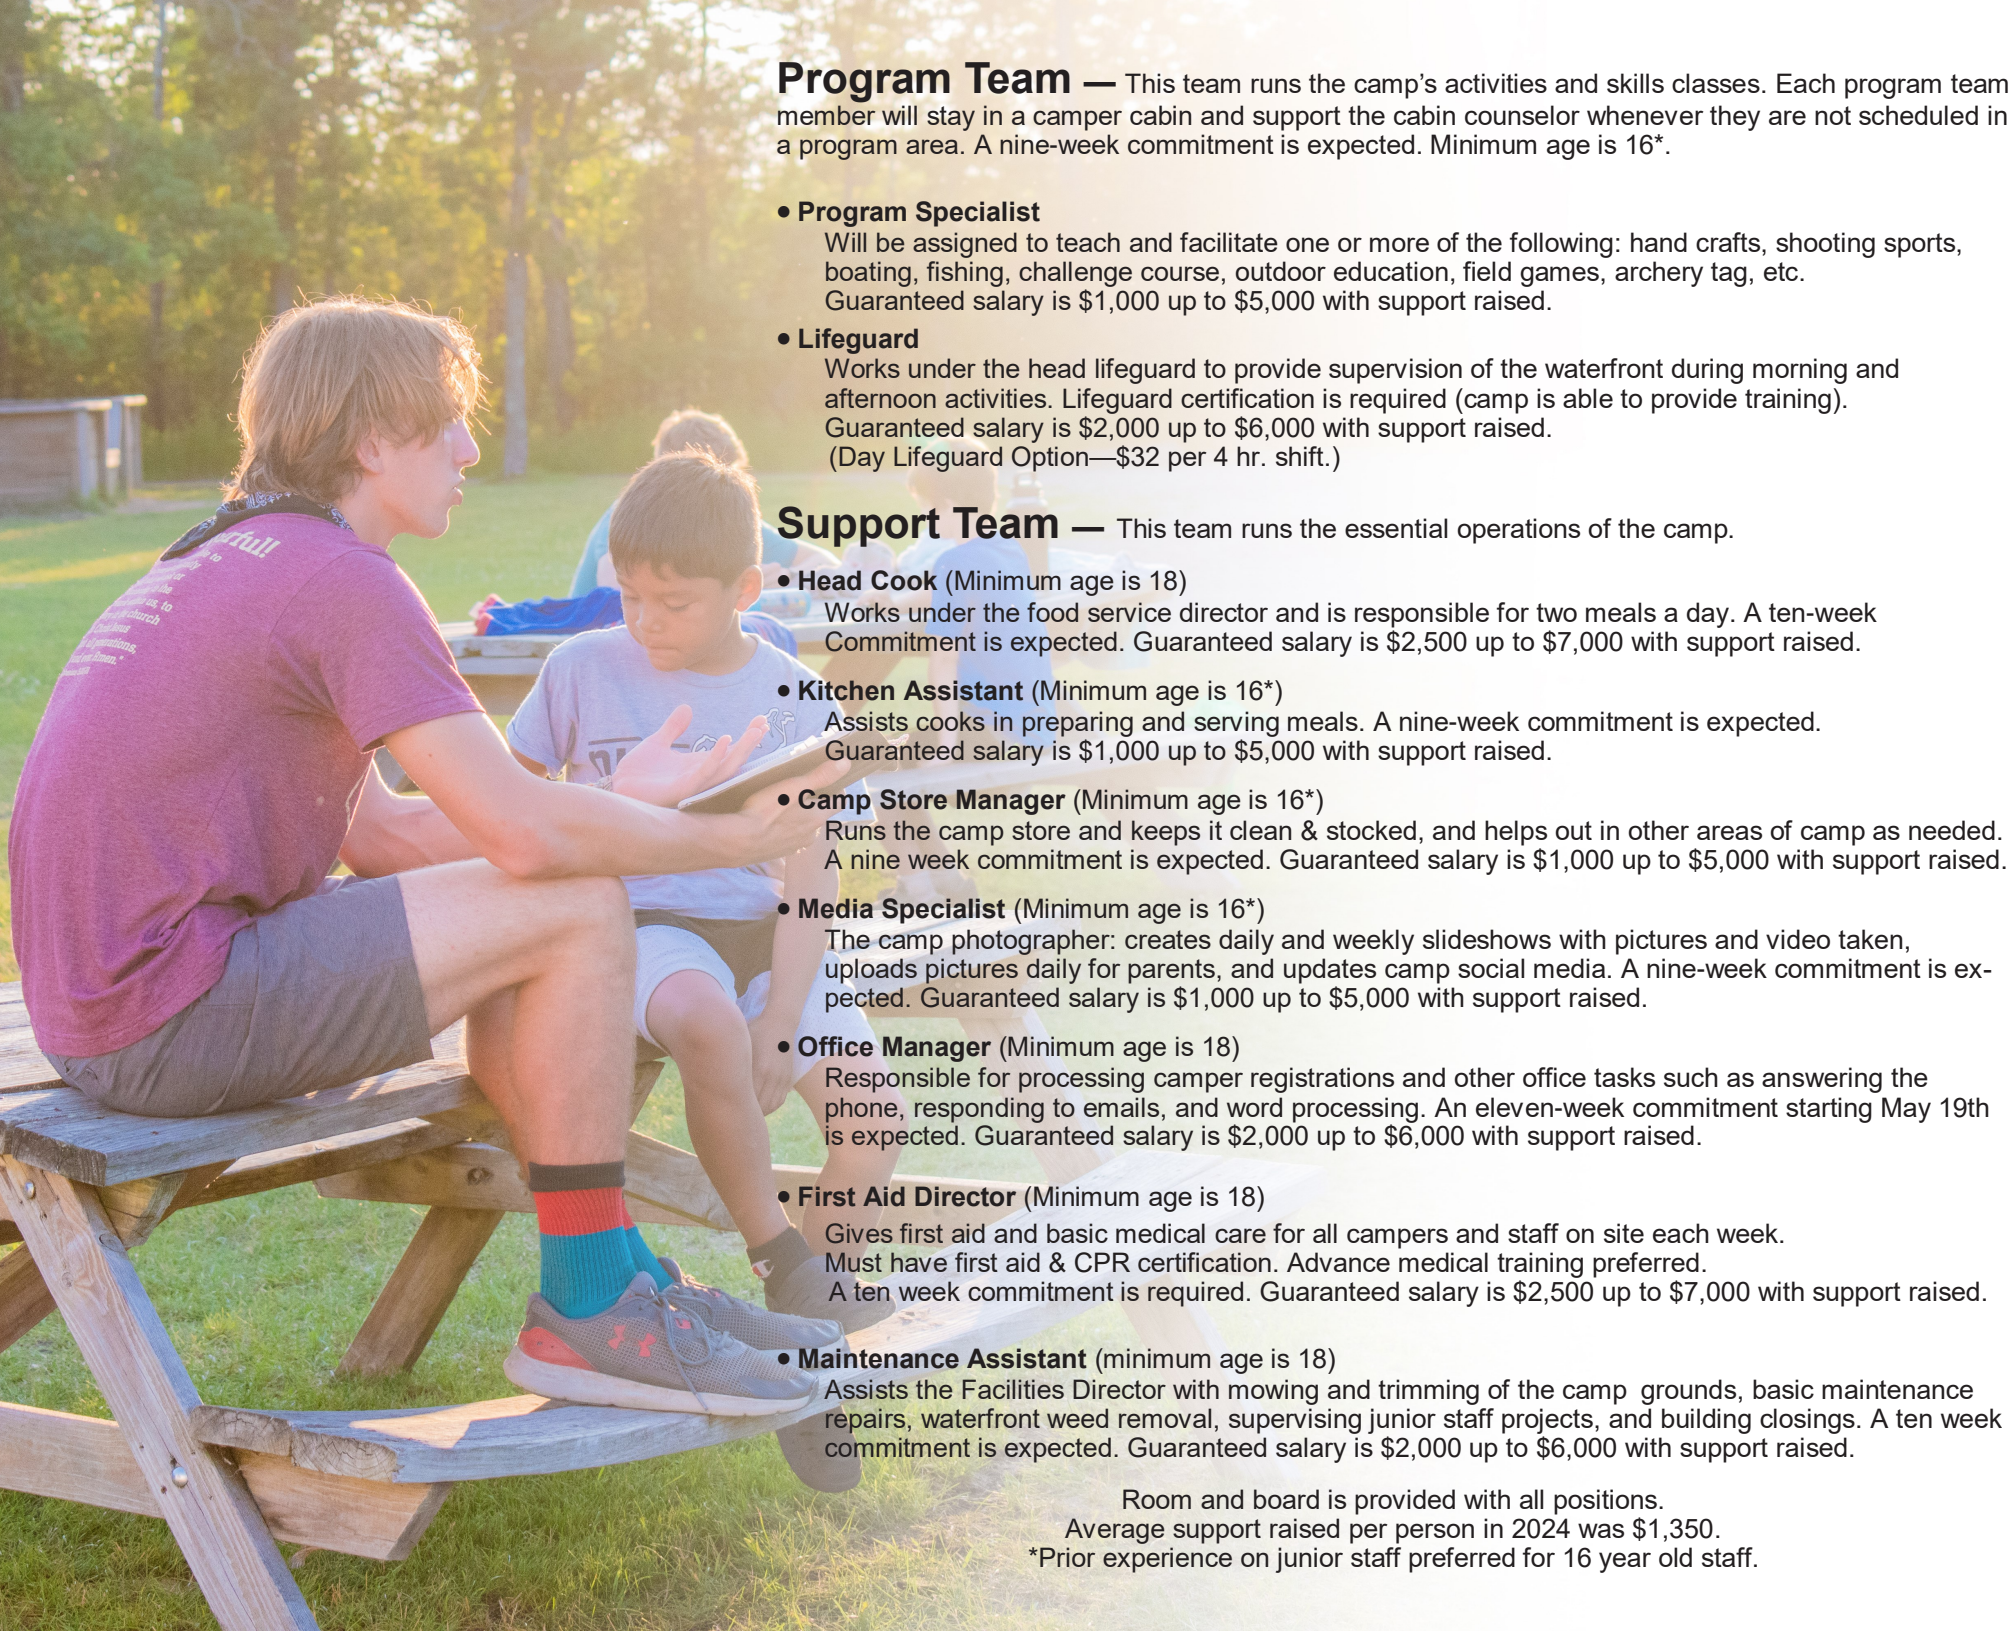

The activities director keeps the camp on schedule. They emcee chapel and meal times, plan and run group games, and oversee program activities.

• Head Lifeguard

The head lifeguard works alongside the waterfront director in providing oversight of all activities at the waterfront and leads the lifeguard team. Lifeguard certification and previous experience is required.
