James Black most recently served 17 years in the North American Division as the youth/young adult ministries director and currently serves as NAD staff chaplain and director for Prayer and Reconnect/Retention Ministries. He is the author of 13 books and resources. He is passionate about engaging the entire church in community prayer evangelism and creating an environment for intergenerational relationships in order to strengthen mission opportunities. He is married to Maxine and they have 3 adult children and 6 grandchildren. He enjoys fishing, motorcycles and sports.

“ Why should I go to a Prayer Summit?”

5 great reasons:

- Take some extra time to focus on God

- “Up your game” in prayer

- Spend time in God’s Living Word

- Pray individually and together

- Learn how pray more effectively for others

“Hey – I’m not good at praying out loud...”

No worries! C’mon! You’ll be glad you did!
