

Behavior Agreement for TLC Participants

Twin Lakes Camp - Helping parents raise Godly children in a secular world.

General TLC Rules:

1. Have FUN!
2. Listen to your leader.
3. The Golden Rule, treat others as you would want to be treated.
4. Don't die! Don't do anything that endangers yourself or others.

As a TLC camper, I agree to...

Show respect to my fellow campers:

1. I will be kind with my actions. I will control my temper and not act violently toward others if upset. This includes my sibling(s), who may or may not be in my cabin.
2. I will be kind with my words. I will not use rude, profane, or insulting words to God or others. This includes my sibling(s), who may or may not be in my cabin.
3. I will be open to others. I will not show favoritism or exclude people from games or appropriate conversations.
4. I will only take or use property that belongs to me. I will not steal from others or TLC.
5. I will engage and participate in discussions and activities. I will not distract others and hinder their camp experience.

Show respect to TLC leaders:

1. I will be honest.
2. I will obey my Cabin Leader, LIT, and other TLC staff quickly and cheerfully.
3. I will obey the TLC dress code (found in Document Center on UltraCamp).

Show respect to the TLC environment:

1. I will do my part to keep the campgrounds and facilities clean. I will not destroy or damage camp property.
2. I will not purposely harm plants or animals.
3. I will not bring electronic devices to camp. (Devices will not be used if brought.)
4. I will not bring alcohol, non-prescription drugs, or tobacco products to camp.

As a TLC camper's parent, I agree to...

1. Talk with my child about their behavior before coming to camp. I will work with my child to set behavior goals and follow up with them after the week at camp.
2. Provide TLC with adequate information about how to support your child with care best before they arrive at camp.
3. Be available to receive potential phone calls during the camp week to discuss behavioral issues or concerns that TLC staff may have. If an incident with my child occurs, I will support and work with the TLC staff to resolve the problem.
4. Be responsible for transporting my child home from camp early if my child's behavior results in them being sent home. I will ensure that my child has sought appropriate reconciliation with others to make restoration.
5. Provide feedback to TLC on issues I am aware of and give my suggestions for making things better in the future.

As Twin Lakes Camp, we will strive to...

1. Provide safe and excellent Christ-centered programs and experiential learning opportunities that follow our mission and core values.
2. Support parents in their child-raising efforts and help when appropriate.
3. Address behavioral issues as quickly and thoroughly as possible. Depending on the offensive behavior's time span, frequency, and severity, TLC reserves the right to send a camper home immediately, at TLC's discretion, at the parent's expense, and without a refund. These offenses include but are not limited to insensitive, abusive, harmful, and unsafe actions.

- Inappropriate sexual behavior: Touching the “swimsuit”-covering areas of another person’s body, taking indecent photos of self or another person, exposing oneself to another person, or other forms of sexual harassment.
- Physical aggression: Hitting, shoving, kicking, fighting, or other aggressive contact or conduct towards another person.
- Aggressive language: Offensive and inappropriate terms directed towards another person or group.
- Bullying involves verbal, social, or physical behavior involving a power imbalance.
