Week 7 was a blast! In art, we made our own pins to show off our creativity through out the day! If campers had art a second time this week, they also made a dream catcher to hang up in their bedrooms!

- Heidi

Archery:

This week in archery, the girls did Disney Trivia in honor of Disney week. Each target was assigned a question based on a color. As the girls aimed and hit their targets, they answered the Disney themed questions. Next week is the Kingswood Archery Tournament!

Drama:

This week, the kids played games where they learned how to take small subtle actions and exaggerate them in order to develop and portray characters. They also learned about how actors in a scene always have objectives, and that they use tactics to achieve those objectives. Next week, we'll be working on monologues to close out the summer!

Music:

This week in music, we are learning about dynamics (the volume of music) through a scavenger hunt. They will learn that the scale goes from pianissimo (quiet) to fortissimo (loud) and their knowledge of music will be tested in a fun and engaging way!
