

God is our refuge and strength, a help always near in times of great trouble.
²That's why we won't be afraid when the world falls apart, when the mountains crumble into the center of the sea. Psalms 46:1, 2

Dear staff and volunteers,

I am so excited to welcome you to Big Lake this summer. I am hopeful that this summer you can find refuge in your own life. Certainly, as we