THINGS TO BRING:

- Camper's medication in original containers. Must be given to the camp staff..
- AT LEAST FOUR CLOTH MASKS (Camper's name on each one) We will still wear masks when getting food in the dining hall.
- TWO WATER BOTTLES
- Sleeping Bag / Pillow / Pillowcase
- Toothbrush / Toothpaste
- Comb / Hairbrush
- Shampoo (plastic bottle)
- Soap and a container to keep it in
- Towel (for shower)
- Towel (for beach)
- Sunscreen
- Flashlight or headlamp
- Extra batteries for flashlight or headlamp
- Feminine hygiene products (if necessary)

optional

- Neckerchief (returning campers)
- Insect repellent
- Bible
- Pen or pencil
- Journal or notebook
- Envelopes (pre-addressed and pre-stamped)
- Plastic garbage bag (to bring home wet things and dirty laundry)
- Camera (cheap or disposable)

CLOTHING:

- T-shirts and tank tops
- Shorts (preferably NOT lightweight cotton)
- Long pants
- Underwear
- Socks
- Extra-Heavy shirt, sweater, or sweatshirt.
- Rainy day gear
- Swimsuit (Practical and functional for swimming, boating, and other beach activities)
- Water shoes with thick bottoms (crucial for our waterfront, pier, and dock)
- Sneakers or hiking shoes (many camp activities require them to be worn)
- Warm Pajamas
- Extra pair of shoes or sandals (you never know)
- Shower sandals or an extra pair of water shoes

THINGS NOT TO BRING

- New, nice, or fragile clothes
- Fireworks or weapons of any kind
- Personal sports equipment
- Pets or any other animal
- Valuables, jewelry, etc.
- Money (all food, snacks, and t-shirts are included in the cost of camp)
- Cell phones, electronics, music players, video game systems, etc. These are a big distraction and the staff WILL take them away and lock them up in the office. Take the challenge - be unplugged.
- Alcohol or drugs (other than prescription)

PACKING TIPS

- Make sure the camper is involved in the packing process, so they know what they have for the week and where it is packed!
- Write the camper's name on everything.
- Remember comfortable and practical. New, fancy clothes will not remain that way during camp.
