

Mini Camp News

Week 3: June 27 - July 1

This week, Mini Campers got really creative! Not only have they been building on their learning from language and culture class, but are exploring other subjects and areas of creativity too. Whether tie-dyeing their camp T-shirts or mixing, stamping and painting salt dough, Mini Campers have been enjoying getting to express their creative sides. We finished up the week with a fun story and then building our own stuffed animals! The Minis had fun picking out their own animal's "skin", then stuffing it full of love, fluff, and some special wishes. Make sure you ask your camper what their stuffy's name is- they are all uniquely adorable!
