Week 7: June 25 - July 29

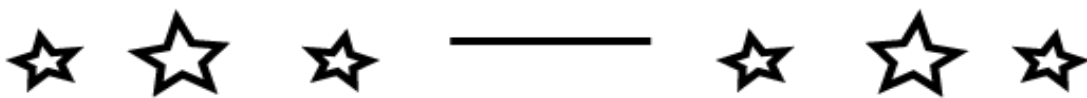

This week, Mini Campers have been building on their learning from Mandarin class, and got a chance to see what the older campers were learning about, too. Whether inside or outside, Mini Campers have been enjoying getting to express their creative sides. We made our own costumes out of cardboard boxes, painted, drew, and scratched wonderful works of art. We finished up the week with an amazing magic show from real magician John Gardenier. He wowed us with his tricks and even shared a few of his secrets to take home! We are looking forward to a fantastic last week of camp.
